that.

SENATOR BURLING: At the bottom of page 7, it talks about liability to the sheriff. And the top of page 8, talks about issuance or revocation of the permit. And am I correct when I read the rest of the bill that the sheriff cannot revoke a permit; only the county attorney or Attorney General does? So I just questioned why revocation was in line 3 on page 8. You can just kind of look at that. I don't need an answer to that now. But...

SENATOR TYSON: Well, if...Senator Burling, line 9 of page 8, it is the duty of the county attorney or his or her deputy,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR TYSON: ...for the revocation of the permit.

SENATOR BURLING: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Burling. Senator Thompson on FA1225.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. I rise in support of Senator Chambers' amendment. And I realize there are some differences of opinion on whether you have to have this or you don't have to have this for consistency purposes. But I think we need it for a public policy purpose. There are all sorts of things in this act that I think need state regulation and state definition and state standards if we're going to have some consistency around the state, and also for guidance to local law enforcement departments, emergency services workers, fire departments, and so forth, all the other people that are impacted, who we're going to expect to be able to understand and roll this out. And by way of example, the...and I know Senator Tyson just answered this. But I would like to have a dialog with him, because I'm getting conflicting information from law enforcement people in my district. And a couple years ago, I did chair the task force on the State Patrol, and we had some discussion of lots of issues dealing with criminal history, record checks, the ability of the Patrol.
